What makes a perfect utopian society?

Thomas More's Utopia Part 1 - Thomas More's Utopia Part 1 - A discussion of Part 1 of Thomas More's Utopia,, where More, explores the ills of England.

A traveler - he's not just a sailor • Sailed with Amerigo Vespucci, the Italian explorer. He has learned Greek and Latin, but prefers the Greek authors.

It would be like being a slave. Why?

The lawyer spoke well of the hanging of 20 thieves at one time He wondered why there was still so much thievery in England

Raphael: \"There are dreadful punishments enacted against thieves, but it were much better to make such good provisions by which every man might be put in a method of how to live, and so be preserved from the fatal necessity of stealing and of dying for it.\" (p. 7)

They discuss the enclosure of land as a change that has increased the poor.

Another example of disregard for the consequences to the poor: Luxury: p. 10 \"you first make thieves and then punish them.\" (11)

Why do you think More allows the traveler to preach to the Archbishop in this way?
